McCarthy and Caples Are Settling Down to Their Training Grind

Johnny McCarthy has taken up training quarters at the marine camp. He could hardly have found a better spot for the purpose, for the beach road is ideal for running, the air is strong and fresh and there is no lack of sparring material among the sporting marines.

Trifert will, if his injured wrist permits, work out with the San Francisco boy whose regular sparring partner will be George Ingie. Trifert, who has the making of a fine boxer, will undoubtedly benefit by his work with McCarthy and the experience should serve him in good stead when he again appears in the local ring.

McCarthy at Work.

McCarthy did nice road work yesterday and again today, hitting the pike for something over an hour. He is feeling chipper and the change in climate does not appear to affect him any.

He will do no work tomorrow but will observe the day as one of rest, a rule which he has honored as long as he can remember. McCarthy attends church regularly every Sunday morning.

On Monday he will start boxing, bag-punching and gymnasium work.

Caples in Action.

Young Caples, or Frank Caples, to give him his proper name, works at Pearl Harbor during the day and has, perforce, to train at night. He has been considerably put about to find suitable training quarters. In all probability he will work out at the Orpheum every night, starting today. A punching-bag will be installed and every facility given the Buffalo lad to condition himself for his coming contest.

Wahlani will spar with Caples and probably Wilder and some other local man.

Caples is a physical culture enthusiast and has written several articles for the magazine called "Physical Culture." He is a strict disciplinarian in what he eats and drinks and does not hesitate to preach the gospel of physical culture and clean living to those with whom he comes in contact.

Wahlani is Matched.

Boxing fans will be pleased to hear that that willing boxer Wahlani, or

INTEREST IN BOWLING IS STEADILY ON THE INCREASE

The Y. M. C. A. bowling tournament came to an end last night. The tourney has been a great success throughout and Manager Wisdom is to be congratulated on the way in which he has run things so as to keep interest in the bowling sustained from beginning to end of the competition.

Last night the Laetis accomplished quite a feat by taking a rubber from the Stragglers, a feat hitherto unperformed by any club in the league this season.

The race ends with the Stragglers in first place and going easily, the Honolulu second and the Laetis a good third.

For the winners last night Rietow had high score, 194; and Wilkinson high average, 178.

For the Stragglers Franz had high

"The Whirlwind," will make his re-appearance in the local ring in a six-round go with an unknown, at least the promoter has not yet revealed his identity.

Wahlani has fought some poor battles, also some mighty good ones, and the fact that he is going to spar regularly with Caples will ensure his being in the heat of condition when the night of his engagement comes round.

Wilder of Fort Shafter who is matched to box eight rounds with George Ingie, starts training in earnest on Monday. He will leave no effort unspared to get into the best of fix to entertain the visitor whose work will be closely watched in view of the fact that he will, in all probability be given the June date with Denny Leary, the soldier champion.

Elimination Tourney.

An elimination tourney will start on the "Y" alleys on Monday.

The eight high men (aggregate for three games) will be picked at the completion of the competition for the competition proper for the championship.

The drawings, which were made this morning, are as follows:

Preliminary round:
Wilkinson vs. Franz.
Dyson vs. C. A. White.
Cheatham vs. Bernal.
F. L. Jones vs. Froelich.
First round:
Rietow vs. E. F. Schmidt.
Scott vs. Harris.
Williams vs. Wisdom.
Winne vs. Barter.
Clymer vs. Franklin.
Barnard vs. Scharlin.

League Standings.

The final standing of the teams in the tournament which closed last night is as follows:

|                  | P. | W. | L. | Pct. |
|------------------|----|----|----|------|
| Stragglers       | 36 | 26 | 10 | .722 |
| Honolulu         | 36 | 23 | 13 | .638 |

| Cosmos           | 36 | 6  | 30 | .166 |

During the 1911 season the longest National league game was the sixteen inning game between Philadelphia and Cincinnati at Philadelphia May 13, the Phillies winning 5 to 4, and the longest American league game was fourteen innings, Chicago defeating New York, 7 to 5, at New York, April 28. As there was nothing doing in the record breaking line in 1911 the standing long distance records are as follows:

Longest professional game, Bloomington versus Decatur, twenty-six innings; score, Decatur 2, Bloomington 1; played at Bloomington, Ill., May 21, 1909.

Second longest professional game, Grand Forks versus Fargo, twenty-five innings score 0 to 0, played at Devils Lake, July 18, 1891.

Longest mixed game, Manchester (professional) versus Harvard college, twenty-four innings, score 0 to 0, played at Boston, May 11, 1877.

Longest American league game, Boston versus Athletics, twenty-four innings; Athletics 4, Boston 1; played at Boston, September 1, 1906.

Longest National league game, Cincinnati versus Chicago twenty innings, score 7 to 7, played at Cincinnati, July 30, 1902, and Philadelphia versus Chicago, twenty innings; score Chicago 2, Philadelphia 1; played at Philadelphia August 24, 1905.

Longest college game, Wesleyan college versus Trinity college of Hartford, nineteen innings, score 2 to 2, played at Hartford, Conn., June 6, 1907.

HOW MANDOT BEAT MORAN

MEMPHIS, Tenn., April 2.—Joe Mandot, the southern aspirant to the lightweight title, fought like a tiger to retain lost ground caused by a knockdown in the second round, carried the fight to the end and was awarded the decision over Owen Moran, the British boxer, at the end of their eight round contest before the National A. C. last night.

For the first time in his local career Mandot suffered not only a knockdown, but he'd profusely from the mouth in the second round and the southerner took the count of nine.

Mandot came up strong in the third round and forced the fighting to the finish. He landed repeatedly without a return, starting the blood to flow from Moran's mouth in the seventh.

The fight was a vicious one from first to last. Mandot set the pace in the opening round by splitting Moran's lips with rapid lefts. Moran rarely fought back and rarely resorted to anything more than left hooks during the eight rounds.

During the middle rounds both boys missed repeatedly in an effort to land a knockout. The final round produced a rally from both boxers, but Mandot more than held his own with straight lefts to the face and rights to the jaw and stomach.

Challenges to the winner were read at the ringside from Matty Baldwin and Paul Moore.

In the Students' Bowling League last night the St. Louis Club took three games from the Splitters.

Rose or St. Louis was high man for his team with 164 and rolled an average of 154. For the Splitters Cowles had 167 for high score and his average of 168 was high for his team.

The scores follow:

| The scores follow: |            |     |     |     |

LONGEST BASEBALL GAME ON RECORD

Frequently the question as to the longest baseball game on record is asked. For the benefit of numerous inquiring fans the records are given.

In the matter of extraordinary long games no record was broken in 1911, the longest game of the season being the twenty-four inning game, 1 to 1, between the Sacramento and Portland teams of the Pacific Coast league played at Sacramento, Sept. 10. To the Pacific Coast league falls the honor of the second longest game of the season, as on Sept. 14 Sacramento and Los Angeles played a twenty-one inning game, 4 to 4, at Los Angeles. In 1910 the longest game was a twenty-four inning game between the Mannington and Clarksburg teams of West Virginia league, played on July 3. In 1909 one record game was played. The Bloomington and Decatur teams of the Three I league played twenty-six innings, this record thus supplanting the record of the twenty-five inning Grand Forks-Fargo

JOHNNY MCCARTHY, CRACK SAN FRANCISCO SCRAPPER.
He is matched to box twelve rounds with Young Caples of Buffalo, N. Y., at the Orpheum on May 4.
